Death Toll Mounts On West Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 23 (A)-The danger spot in floodstricken northern California, called a "major disaster area" by President Eisenhower, moved today into the Sacramento Valley. In one mass operation 12,500 persons were evacuated from the city of Marysville.

Meanwhile, the toll of known deaths from floods washing the state from Monterey Bay north to the Oregon line and the valleys and foothills of the Sierra to the outhern San Joaquin, rose to 16.

"... And so in this way, my children, Christ was born in Bethlehem."

But Christmas is more than the celebration of this event which happened long ago and far away. It is a present reality. Through the eyes of faith we see ourselves kneeling before the manger. We have come to adore our new-born King. Through the wonder of faith, the Christmas story becomes alive.

The Christ Child is born in our hearts. The angels speak to us: "Behold I bring you tidings of great joy . . . For unto you is born this day in the City of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord!"

Our Bethlehem today is our Church and Sunday School. Let us go and take our children to worship our new-born King.

the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The score was tied five times in the first half, which was marked by the absence of points rather than the abundance of scores. Ed Gassler tallied the first points of the game when the Northampton center dunked a field goal with a little more than two minutes 136.

East Stroudsburg missed its first nint shots from the field, but King Beers evened the count at 2-2 after four and one-half minutes of play. The two teams moved to a 4-4 deadlock and Beers tossed two charity heaves into the cords to give the Cavaliers a 6-4 eadge.

But, Simcoe and his Northamp ton mates stormed back to hold an 8-6 edge at the end of a confusion packed first period.

Northampton opened a 15-10 Field To Six Contingents but East Stroudsburg came back to cut the deflicit to two points. 15-13, on a field goal by Gray and Holiday Basketball Tournament to be held at the Monroe County a foul shot by Jim Kimler, Both teams scored seven points in the second quarter.

'Twas the night before Christmas, and all through the County many creatures were stirring, arranging the bounty of Santa Claus, Esq., under the Tree, So that infants and adults would chartle with glee When the sun rose over the land and the Sea.

By midnight the house was dark and still, When a bus came rattling over the hill, Disgorging an uncle who crept unto the house Trying to be as still as a mouse, So the Little King wouldn't awaken and see The Wondrous, Sparkling Christmas Tree... ... 'Til the sun rose over both Land and Sea.

At 6:45 they all tossed in their beds, Thoughts of the morning racing through their heads. Sleep? Impossible! The night was gone, look out of the window - the first glimmer of dawn!

Creep down to the kitchen, to the coffee pot, Sip the black brew, so tasty and hot, Whisper "Merry Christmas, John, Marge, Dick and Jack;" Where was the King?...Still in the sack.

Upstairs again, once more to wait. The suspense was terrific. He's sleeping so late! When will he - but look, it's time to singl Standing, sleepy-eyed, in his doorway... His Majesty the King.

He stumbles on short legs onto the rug, He gives his mommy a sleepy hug, He turns—and gasps as his wondering eyes see His first, Majestic Christmas Treel

Now, from every throat, the loud, glad call: Merry Christmas! Merry Christmas! Merry Christmas! from all.

Green and red and golden and blue, lights and ribbons of every hue, Gaily striped boxes piled on high, Seeming to reach all the way to the sky. Was there ever such a sight for a boy to see? He stretches out his arms, crying: "A Present for me!"

Off with the ribbons, the wrappings tear-And reveal a marvelous musical bear! Here's another one-quickly-open the box: A wonderful set of building blocks!

What is this dancing upon the rug? A fluttering, whirring, mechanical bual A sheriff's office, a gun to shoot, And to complete the picture - a cowboy suit!

A piano to play - toys seven times seven, Cars, trucks, animals—surely this is Heaven! "Thank you! Thank you! Another present for me?" The parade goes on, as the hours flee...

[... Til the sun sinks over both land and Sea.

And now it's time to stop your play, And dream of your toys (Tomorrow's another day).

As his tired eyes close, and shut out the light,

Merry Christmas To All - And To All, A Good Night!

Merry Christmas

WILL CLOSE AT 6 TONIGHT

Thank you,

Michael Taylor
